Stanley Ketchel's twenty round fight ith Bill Papke at Colma this afternoon is attracting the attention of sporting men all over the world. If Ketchel wins it means that he will be Jack Johnson's next oppont in a battle for the heavyweight title Ketchel loses the match arranged with inson will be declared off and efforts be made to force the big negro into a ill with Sam Langford. Ketchel undoubtedly is taking chances meeting the heavy hitting Papke to-day. 1908, they clashed for the first time in ten round bout in Milwaukee, Ketchel getting the decision after winning all the way. Another match was arranged for ber 7 at Vernon, Cal., and Papke hel away in the twelfth round. It was for the battle and that a terrific punch ied by Papke squarely on the jaw in the first round practically won the fight, as Ketchel was in a dazed condition there Ketchel then asked for a third mill and Papke readily consented. The Michigan Lion trained long and strenuously, this time, reducing his weight from 185 pounds to 158, which was the subject for much comment, ring sharps doubting that he was strong and fit. But Ketchel proved that he was Papke's master from the word ubmission and finally knocked him old in eleven rounds. , Ketchel has disted ever since that Papke quit be-use of a yellow streak, and when the latter cently asked for a fourth encounter the mg articles. Papke set the weight at 155 pounds five hours before ring time, which was agreeable to Ketchel, and both will have no trouble in tipping the m at 10 o'clock this morning.

When articles were signed the men agreed bet $5,000 on the side, but at Papke's request this wager has been cut out of the conditions. It is said that Papke sudis said that Papke sudchanged his mind about the wager Philadelphia Jack O'Brien in less than ree rounds and at the same time had e trouble in making the weight, 160 pounds.

Retchel will enter the ring this afternoon 2 to 1 favorite with all kinds of backing.

is one of the most popular fighters in America and a victory will be hailed with delight as the Michigan Lion is believed have an excellent chance to whip Johnon His defeat would be regarded as mity as Papke could not hope for match with Johnson because of his size. growing, while Ketchel will weigh pounds by the time he enters the ring

In the event of a victory by Ketchel there will be no chance for Langford until after the Ketchel-Johnson fight, but Langord may get a forty-five round mill with Papke at Colma as Coffroth will hang up etchel and Papke as far as hitting goes. Panke is quick and tricky, a strong point in the first few moments of a fight. He snocked Hugo Kelly out in this manner pefore the latter realized that the bout had begun and he probably intends to try similar tactics to-day. In gameness, how-ever, Ketchel is undeniably the master. It also is believed that Ketchel has learned my valuable things about boxing since

Those who saw Ketchel practically knock O'Brien out twice say they expect to see Papke take the count inside of ten or a dozen rounds, maybe in shorter time. In Frisco the betting is even money that Papke will be sent to the land of dreams in less than Willus Britt, Ketchel's manager and chief second, wired several friends here yesterday that the defeat of Papke was a sure thing and that the end would come sooner than expected. One of Smitt's telegrams read:

Don't forget the old Indian sign!
Ketchel's got it on Papke and the Dutchman knows it! Have a good bet on the coming champion of the world, Stanley

The fight will begin about 3 o'clock, Frisco time, and the result should be known nere before 7 o'clock.

Lengtord has begun training for his ten round bout with Big Al Kublak, the Michigan Giant, at the Fairmont A. C. next Friday night. Kublak is about the only heavyweight in the East now that has nerve enough to tackle the conqueror of Ian Hague. Before Langford went over to England to stop Hague he met Kublak in a six round bout in Philadelphia. Kublak on that occasion was forty pounds heavier and was fit, while Langford was a triffe stale. Kublak took a terrific punching and also did some effective work himself, with the result that he stayed the limit, though Langford had the right to a decision.

This time Langford is gomg to try hard to put Kublak away. He will weigh about 185 pounds, while the Michigan slugger will tip the beam at 200 pounds or more Langford says he is anxious to show New Yorkers why Jack Johnson, Al Kaufman, Ketchel and others are afraid to fight him, and has taken Kublak on so that the task set for him will be anything but easy.

Leach Cross, who was knocked out in Leach Cross, who was knocked out in forty-one rounds by Dick Hyland at Colma recently, arrived home yesterday. He said he never would indulge in a long fight again but would confine his efforts to ten round bouts in this city. Cross declared that the climate had much to do with his defeat in California. Hyland will be here in about a week and the Fairmont A. C. probably will offer him a ten round bout with Cross, as such a mill it is believed would excite much local intetest.

The date for Young Corbett's fight with Johnny Frayne at Colma has been fixed for July 17. Corbett has reduced until he can do 135 pounds and says that he hopes to weigh less. If he defeats Frayne the Denver puglist probably will challenge Battling Nelson.

Ban Johnson, president of the American League, before leaving here yesterday for the West said to The Sun man:

When I read the published statement the other day of Frank Chance, manager of the Cubs, that the National Commission was composed of 'crooks' I decided that the time had arrived to call a halt. I notified Chairman Herrmann that Chance should be immediately suspended. Herrmann called upon President Murphy of the Chicago club for an explanation and Murphy hurried to Cincinnati, where he tothe commission declaring that the interview, first published in Pittsburg, was a fake pure and simple.

"It looks like a question of veracity between Chance and a Pittsburg reporter. As Clarke, the Pittsburg manager, was similarly quoted some time ago and also made a direct denial of the yarn it is a difficult matter for the commission, to take action. But you can say that the moment. Leader the Manager of the commission, to take action. But you can say that the moment.

AUSTRALIAN A NIGHT WINNER. Clarke Takes Five Mile Professional Cycle Championship.

Jack Clarke, the Australian cyclist, won the five mile Amierican professional championship last night at the Vailsburg cycle track in Newark. Frank Kramer, the national champion, started but had to retire on account of a punctured tire, riding two and one-half miles. About 5,000 persons saw the contests, it being the first time night racing has been tried on Sunday. Clarke began his sprint a lap and a half from the end of the race, going from fifth place in the line to first in a few yards. Fogler trailed along behind Clarke and Root fell in back of Fogler. The Australian never faltered in his quarter mile sprint and finished five feet ahead of Fogler, who was a half a length behind Root as he crossed the line.

Clarke nor Kramer nor Fogler qualified. Jack Clarke, the Australian cyclist, won

Clarke nor Kramer nor Fogler qualified for the final heat of the one mile handicap. Root and Fenn fought it out in the last lap of the deciding heat, Fenn finishing a length ahead of Root, while Krebs took second place from Root by a jump at the tape. Menus Bedeli work the other inches.

Lawrence was never able to work his way through the field in the amateur handicap, which Magin captured. William Vanden Dries of the New York Athletic Club was roundly hissed by the spectators in the last lap of the open amateur event for what seemed a deliberate attempt to throw Lawrence. The latter won by a length.

LAWN TENNIS.

Pairings and Doubles in Westchester Tourney This Week.

Lawn tennis players begin a busy week of tournament competition to-day. The most important arena of their skill will be the turf courts of the Country Club of Westchester. Club members will engage in mixed handicap matches there to-day, but to-morrow holders of national championships will engage in the round robin doubles, which in a measure are preliminary to the national championships in that event. The new pairing of William A. Larned, national singles champion, and his younger brother, Edwin P., is attracting attention as they are expected to make a trial toward the national by way of the Eastern doubles at Longwood. The other new pairing is of the Pennsylvanians, William J. Clothler, former national champion, and Wallace F. Johnson. George Adee will direct the contests. He made the drawing for the schedule yesterday as follows:

Tuesday—Harold H. Hackett and Raymond D. Little vs. William J. Clothler and Wallace F. Johnson, William A. Larned and Edgar W. Leonard vs. Robert D. Wrenn and Edgar W. Leonard vs. Robert D. George A. Ormiston has his eye on the ball this season and now seems a stronger championship possibility of the Pittsburg group than either Eben M. Byers, the former titleholder, or W. C. Fownes, Jr. In the recent tournament of the Allegheny Country Club—the fifteenth annual—he beat Byers in the semi-final by 1 up, scoring 77 to 78, and in the final Ormiston, beat F. Oden Horstman of Chevy Chase, by 2 and 1. W. C. Fownes, Jr., however, is playing well and has again won the amateur championship of the Western Pennsylvania Golf Association. Fownes twice has put out W. J. Travis in the amateur championship, first at Wheaton and next at Cleveland, each time the match going to extra holes.

Eben M. Byers did the same at Glenview, and Ormiston is not lacking when gauged by the same pacemaker. In 1902 he tied for the low score medal with Travis, losing on the playoff. In 1904 at Baltusrol Ormiston defeated Travis in the second round of the championship by 3 and 1. Dormy 2. Ormiston holed a cleik shot on the seventeenth hole for 2 and the match. In 1898 and 1899 Findlay Douglas was the stumbling block in Travis's path to the title. It is odd that on the other occasions Travis has been put out it has been by a Pittsburger.

To-day's card for Sheepshead Bay indi-cates some high class racing, which probably will be witnessed by a big crowd. The Commonwealth Handicap, one mile and a quarter, is one of the features, with Hil-dreth's Fitz Herbert and Montgomery in strong favor over Effendi, King's Daughter and Affiction. The Zephyr Handicap, for two-year-olds, five and a half furlongs, Futurity course, is another attraction, with Mrs. L. A. Livingston's Kingship a possible winner from H. P. Whitney's Evening Song winner from H. P. Whitney's Evening Song and Greenvale, J. L. McGinnia's Charlie Hargrave and the Quincy Stable's Sandrian.

The Tourenne Handicap, at a mile and a furlong on the grass, may result in a close finish by Maitble, Montgomery and Rio Grande, with Beanclere probably scratched. In the Equality selling race, at six and a half furlongs, turf course, George W. Lebolt, Seymour Beutler and Jolly may be the factors. For the Independence Steeplechase, at about two miles, and a half, California King, Kentucky Beau and Sandy Creeker have chances. Three-year-olds will run in the Savanac selling, at a mile, with Twilight Queen, Hill Top and Casque possibly the best.

Gov. Fort of New Jersey has called a meeting for July 8 to discuss plans for the proposed boulevard along the Jersey coast from Atlantic Highlands to Cape May. The meeting will be held in the Governor's summer residence at Sea Girt and the tentative map of the highway. which has been prepared under the direc-tion of Robert A. Meeker, State Road Supervisor, will be submitted for con-sideration. At present there are fine broad improved roads along most of the route suggested for the ocean boulevard, but is number of connecting links will have to be built if the pian goes through. The Governor has invited all of the State highway officials and the members of the boards of freeholders of Atlantic city. Monmouth, Ocean and Cape May counties to attend the conference. It is expected that a number of the local officials of the various cities along the route of the proposed boulevard also will attend. It has been suggested that a State road from Trenton to Sea Girt be built in connection with the proposed ocean boulevard. This plan meets with favor from State officials who have been forced to make wide detours when going forced to make wide detours when going from Trenton to Sea Girt to visit the State troops encamped at Sea Girt.

R. D. Moot of the Automobile Club of Buffalo recently issued some information concerning roads near his home city which will be valuable for automobilists who in tend touring in the western part of the State He says the main highways from Buffald to Albany via Geneva, Syracuse, Utica and Schenectady are in fairly good condition, with the exception of the road from Geneva to Freebridge north of Seneca Falls and a few other stretches, not exceeding half mile, where the road is being improved be tween Little Falls and Fonds. The roads between Waterloo and Seneca Falls are now torn up for the laying of sewers. It is suggested that in this section automobilists take the north road from Geneva along the New York Central tracks three or four miles, and then turning at right angles east a good country road will be found to Free-bridge. Most automobilists in the run from Syracuse to Buffalo are now taking the route by way of Rochester, although the road is said to be in ordinary condition.

It is reported that a two day track meet may be held in Detroit on July 9 and 10, just before the start of the Glidden tour from that city. Hugh Chalmers is said to have promised to enter the Chalmers-Detroit with which Joe Matson won the Chicago Automobile Club's light car race for the Indiana trophy. There was some Barney Oldfield in his six cylinder National and Walter Christie in his new front wheel drive Christie racer, but this will be impossible as Christie will race in Montreal on July 9 and 10.

Joseph C. word comes from abroad that the Royal Automobile Club elected 2,400 new members in 1908 and that the big British organization had a total membership of 5,600 at the beginning of this year. The membership of the Automobile Club of France, as reported at its annual meeting last month, was 2,335. In the year that closed the French club lost 157 members through death or other causes and elected only 124 new members. The receipts of the French club for its preceding year were $177,705, and the expenses were $115,736, leaving a profit of $61,009.

A slipping clutch is a nuisance any time, apart from the fact that the clutch leather may be burned out and thus involve expenditure for renewal of the leather. In some cars there is no adjustment for the clutch spring, and in others the adjustment often is difficult to operate and requires lots of time. Drivers of heavy vehicles often use a temporary remedy that can be applied quickly. They take up the footboards, depress the clutch lever and wedge it so that the clutch-leather is out of contact with the driving outer portion. The leather is riveted to the clutch and the leather can be raised slightly between the rivets. Matches, small bits of wood or folded pieces of paper can be inserted under the leather midway between the rivets at the back of the clutch. If this is done all evenly around it will generally serve as a temporary means of preventing the clutch from slipping.

"Brooklyns" Beat "Highlanders." The Highlanders and Brooklyns played as exhibition game at Washington Park yester-day and judging from the way the batteries were swapped around it wasn's a very serious affair. The score:

Baseball Notes.

J. A. B.-B is right. Cantilion seems to have picked up a likely hit-ter in Mr. Lelivelt.

Everything comes to him who waits, including George Mullins being knocked out of the box. The Macon. Ga., franchise has been taken in charge by the South Atlantic League officials. The Pirates have been going at anything but pennant clip since they moved to their new There isn't much doubt that Pennsylvania had the strongest college team and is the real nan the stongest contect team and its too real champion.

As a consumer of foul files of every description Bergen of Brooklyn is the tidlest performer of them all.

The New York Americans have won the season's series from the Washingtons and the Detroits from St. Louis and Chicago.

The White Sox soids eleven bases against the St. Louis catchers the other day, and Criger caught part of the game for the Browns, too.

The Athletics seems to be one of those teams that are weak on paper and strong on the diamond. That's a way Connie Mack has.

You often hear of a new player being a second You often hear of a new player being a second So and So, but never of a second Hans Wagner. Shall we ever look upon the Dutchman's like

You often hear of a new player being a second So and So, but never of a second Hans Wagner. Shall we ever look upon the Dutchman's like again?

There is a fair chance of a dark horse capturing the American League pennant, but just at present the Highlanders are not equines of a pronounced brunette complexion.

Numerous captains have been out of the game at various times this season from accidents or dilness, among them Chance, Lajole, Keeler, Gessler, Lumley and Bresnahan.

Beyond all doubt Red Murray has filled Donin's shoes, leaving nothing to be desired as a successor to Mike. The only point is that were Donlin on hand there would be two of them.

In a game between the Metropolitans and Baltimore Colored Giants in Caristadt, N. J., yesterday a triple play was made by the former team. With the bases filled Hirschman, center field, caught a liner and threw to Clark, shortstop, who threw to Beckett, first baseman, getting the runner who was on first. Beckett then threw to Read, catcher who got a man trying to score from third base. In the last two weeks the Giants have played thirteen games and won tweive of them. That represents both quantity and quality in baseball. They played five double headers in that time and won four of them—more quality mixed with quantity. Although the lowly Bostons and Brooklyns were the opponents McGraw's men played some of the fastest ball they ever have played. In the Harvard-Yale game last Saturday some of the scorers overlooked the new rule that when a batter gets to first on a wild pitch or passed ball the pitcher or catcher shall be charged with a fielding error. Hicks made a technical wild pitch on Mailory getting to first. The ball hit the ground before Currier caught it and gave Mailory the right to run to first. Scores of the Contests in the West. CINCINNATI, July 4 .- Starting with Wagner, the first four batsmen up for Pitteburg in the ninth inning to-day made hits. A double play and a line fly to Mitchell intervened to stop further damage, only two runs resulting. Wilson fell into the right field seats after catching Mitchell's fly in the seventh inning, but held the ball. Hoblitzel was hit on the head and knocked unconscious by a pitched ball in the first inning, but revived and continued in the game. The score:
